SUN BELT CONFERENCE NEWS & NOTES

USA's longest-ever.

ULL, ULM EARN TOURNAMENT TITLES

Junior Jordan Wallace tossed a complete-game two-hit shutout to lead the UL Lafayette Ragin' Cajuns softball team past Central Arkansas, 5-0, on the final day en route to claiming the title at the 2014 Ragin' Cajun Invitational.

The ULM softball program needed only five innings to earn a 19-0 victory over Grambling State to cap the 2014 Mardi Gras Classic on Feb. 16. With the win, the Warhawks earned the Mardi Gras Classic championship.

CAJUNS OUTLAST #5 MICHIGAN

The UL Lafayette Ragin' Cajuns defeated fourth-ranked Michigan, 8-6 on Feb. 14. The victory was the Cajuns' first regular season victory against a top-five team since they defeated #5 Arizona State on March 15, 2012 at the Judi Garman Classic.

DOERRE, TEXAS STATE WALK-OFF VS. #23 CAL

A walk-off home run by sophomore Katie Doerre in the bottom of the seventh inning gave the Texas State softball team a 4-3 win vs. No. 23 California. It was the sophomore's first home run of the season.

JAGS NOTCH SECOND TOP-RANKED WIN

The No. 18/19 South Alabama softball team recovered from a 2-1 loss to Northwestern by defeating No. 21 LSU by the same scoreline in an evening showdown to split a two-game set at the 2014 Tiger Invitational in Baton Rouge, La.

JAGUARS RECORD 5-0 START

No. 18/19-ranked South Alabama softball team wrapped up the 2014 Mardi Gras Invitational with a 12-0, run-rule defeat of Austin Peay to secure its best-ever start to a season (5-0).

TUDOR OPENS WITH A "W"

The WKU Lady Toppers opened their 2014 season and the Amy Tudor era with a 9-1 win over Liberty at the FGCU/Four Points by Sheraton Invitational. WKU then went on to defeat Ole Miss by a 3-2 score in its next game on the day.

TROY BREAKS ATTENDANCE RECORD

Troy broke its own single-game attendance record when a record 2,078 fans were at the Troy Softball Complex to watch No. 6 Alabama take on Troy. The Crimson Tide proved too much for the Trojans, who fell 7-1. The 2,078 fans shattered the previous mark of 1,351 set in 2011, also against Alabama.

TROJANS NOTCH BACK-TO-BACK SHUTOUTS

Troy took down Kennesaw State (5-0) and Memphis (9-0) during the 2014 Troy Subway Invitational last weekend.

TROJANS OPEN NEW FACILITY

The Troy Trojans opened the brand new Troy Softball

Complex with a 5-5 tie against in-state foe Auburn. Heavy rain stopped the tied game during the top of the sixth inning. Michelle Phelps started the game with a grand slam in the Trojans' half of the first inning to put them on the board early.

BOBCATS EATING UP OPPOSING PITCHERS

Texas State notched two run-rule victories to close its opening weekend of play. The Bobcats defeated Southern Illinois and Texas A&M-Corpus Christi by the scores of 9-0 and 13-0 respectively. Texas State's first win of the 2014 season was a 4-3 victory against Stephen F. Austin.

MAVERICKS OFFENSIVE ATTACK INTACT

The Mavericks return each of their offensive leaders from last season. Juniors Nina Villanueva and Meagan Michele led the Mavericks with .329 and .288 batting averages respectively. Michele also led the team in slugging percentage (.471), RBI (24), runs (21) and home runs (6).

JAGUARS BLAZE UAB, EARN FIRST RANKED WIN

South Alabama earned its first victory over a nationally-ranked opponent, and the first by a Sun Belt Conference team this season, with a season-opening 8-0 victory against No. 21 UAB. The Jaguars, ranked No. 18 in the latest USA Today/NFCA Coaches Poll and No. 19 in the latest ESPN.com/USA Softball Poll, are the highest ranked team in the Sun Belt Conference this season.

RAGIN'S CAJUNS OWN ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM

Two UL Lafayette softball players, Lexie Elkins and Natalie Fernandez, earned All-Tournament Team honors following the conclusion of the Louisiana Classic on the opening weekend of play. Elkins was also named the tournament's Most Valuable Player.

FIRST TIE IN SCHOOL HISTORY

UL Lafayette's Gabby Felps hit a pinch-hit go-ahead double in the top of the seventh inning to give the UL

Lafayette a 7-5 lead, but the Ragin' Cajuns could not close out Purdue and tied the Boilermakers 7-7 on the final day of the Louisiana Classic at Lamson Park. The tie, the first in Ragin' Cajuns softball history, was forced by a predetermined stoppage time due to Purdue's travel arrangements.

SUN BELT CONFERENCE PRESEASON NEWS & NOTES

UL LAFAYETTE ENTERS SEASON AS FAVORITE, WKU'S WAKINS PICKED AS PRESEASON PLAYER OF THE YEAR

NEW ORLEANS — The UL Lafayette Ragin' Cajuns enter the 2014 season as the conference favorite while Western Kentucky infielder Olivia Watkins was selected as the Preseason Player of the Year on the 2014 Sun Belt Conference Softball Preseason Poll and All-Conference list released on Monday. UL Lafayette junior pitcher Jordan Wallace was selected as the Preseason Pitcher of the Year.

The Sun Belt Conference announced its entire Softball Preseason All-Conference team with selections made in a vote by the league's eight head coaches.

Watkins is coming off an impressive season in which she was named to the NFCA All-Region First Team, the Sun Belt All-Conference First Team and Sun Belt Conference All-Tournament Team. She ranked 19th in the nation in stolen bases per game with 0.62 and led the conference with 38 stolen bases.

Wallace earned 32 victories and struck out 382 batters last season, while also throwing three-consecutive shutouts in the NCAA Baton Rouge Regional. She finished the year with a 32-9 record, a 1.70 ERA and ranked third in the nation with the 382 strikeouts.

The Ragin' Cajuns are coming off a 2013 season in which they won the NCAA Baton Rouge Regional by defeating host LSU in back-to-back games. The Ragin' Cajuns forced a decisive game three against No. 8 Michigan in the NCAA Ann Arbor Super Regional, but their season ended with a 47-15 record and their first back-to-back trip to NCAA Super Regionals in school history.

South Alabama senior pitcher Hannah Campbell, who was a Second-Team All-America honoree by the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA), was named a Preseason All-Conference Pitcher. South Alabama tied with WKU for the most honorees on the preseason list with three. Joining Campbell were her teammates Kaitlyn Griffin (shortstop) and Blair Johnson (outfield) on the list. WKU infielder Preslie Cruce and pitcher Emily Rousseau (at-large) were also honored.

Several conference newcomers earned preseason laurels. Georgia State junior Callie Alford earned distinction as a catcher and at-large player (infield) on the list. Teammate Jessica Clifton was named an outfielder while UT Arlington junior Nina Villanueva, and sophomore Britnea Barilli were each named at-large selections.

The 2014 Sun Belt Conference Softball season begins this Thursday, Feb. 6 as South Alabama hosts UAB and Troy hosts Auburn. Conference play begins on Saturday, March 22. All eight teams will advance to the conference tournament held May 7-10 in Lafayette, La., on the campus of the University of Louisiana at Lafayette.

Troy Trojans

Overall: 22-29-2; .434 • SBC: 5-13; .278

The Trojans closed out the regular season with a split at No. 21 South Alabama. Troy took game one, 1-0, but fell in game two, 3-2.

Ashley Rainey was dominant in the circle in game one. She retired the first 12 batters she faced and did not give up a hit until the sixth inning. Rainey allowed just two hits on the day, and has now gone 18 consecutive innings without allowing a run. Rainey was also part of Troy's lone run in the game. She picked up a single in the fifth inning and was replaced at first by Bria Epps, who later came around to score.

The Trojans dropped game two, 3-2. Troy got down early, but battled back to tie the game in the fourth on back-to-back home runs by Erica Davis and Meg Willis.

Troy earned the seventh seed in the upcoming Sun Belt Conference Championships and will take on ULM in the opening game on Wednesday at 10 a.m. Troy lost both games at ULM earlier this season, with both going to extra innings.

WKU Lady Toppers

Overall: 32-22-1; .591 • SBC: 11-10; .524

-The series with the Panthers marked the last SBC series in program history before the athletic department moves to a new conference this July. The Lady Toppers finish their time in the Sun Belt Conference with a 123-154-1 record, good for a winning percentage of .442. During that time, WKU has finished in the top four eight times while winning its first-ever league championship last year with a 20-3 record. WKU has had two student-athletes earn specialty awards, including senior Emily Rousseau being the program's first-ever SBC Pitcher of the Year in 2013, and had a Coach of the Year honoree twice. The program has also had 38 All-SBC selections, as the team looks to add to the number with the league's announcement coming this Tuesday.

-WKU will make its 14th appearance at the SBC Tournament this week, entering the field as the No. 4 seed. WKU has been the fourth seed twice in program history, the last coming in 2004 when the tourney was in Lafayette, going 0-2 with shutout losses to No. 5 North Texas and No. 3 Middle Tennessee. The Lady Toppers face the winner of No. 8 UT Arlington and No. 5 Texas State, as WKU took the series from both of the SBC newcomers in road games. WKU is 1-0 against a No. 8 seed and 3-3 against the No. 5 seed all time.

-The Lady Toppers enter the tourney with a 21-26 record in SBC postseason action. WKU has appeared in the Championship Game three times in its history—2000, 2005 and 2013. Last year, WKU recorded a 3-2 mark in the tourney and fell just short to South Alabama, 2-0, but still earned an at-large bid to its first-ever NCAA Regional appearance.

-Though the season continues, WKU has already had multiple single-season records set by individual players. Senior Olivia Watkins will conclude her stellar senior season as WKU's season-record holder in hitting percentage, hits, runs, multi-hit games, stolen bases and stolen bases attempts. Fellow classmate Amanda Thomas will finish first in sacrifice flies while senior Kelsie Mattox along with those Lady Toppers still have a chance to increase their stats and jump the current record holders.
